

Republican Party of Florida
Precinct Committeeman/Committeewoman
Responsibilities

1. By serving as the year-round liaison for your precinct, you are a delegate from that precinct on the county executive committee. It is your job to provide information about the Party and its activities to the registered Republicans in your precinct. You can achieve this through some mail and/or door-to-door efforts.
2. You need to, in essence, create your own grassroots organization in your precinct by organizing leaders by blocks, streets, and neighborhoods. Like the REC, have meetings with delegates from various neighborhoods with you acting as leader of that small organization.
3. The REC is expected to recruit volunteers to participate in the campaign. You are expected to recruit volunteers from your precinct. The better organized you are with block captains, the easier it will be to recruit volunteers.
4. Schedule some door-to-door efforts to distribute party and candidate literature. This applies to off-year activities, where you would pass out general information on the Party. You will also help conduct door-to-door in the campaign phase.
5. It is your job to organize meetings and rallies in your precinct, and also to recruit attendees for countywide events as well.
6. It is your job to identify unregistered citizens in your precinct, as well as finding registered voters who might be willing to switch if asked. When a county conducts a switch campaign, you are charged with implementing the program in your precinct.
7. As we get into the campaign phase, you need to coordinate the effort to ID all the voters favorable to the GOP and its candidates.
8. The county party will be conducting the countywide voter contact programs. You are responsible to coordinate these efforts in your precinct. For instance, you need to recruit the volunteers who will poll watch in your precinct.
9. Lastly, you need to make sure that all the voters who you have helped ID as favorable are gotten to the polls. You need to arrange for people to give rides to the polls in your precinct, and handle the other things that will ensure strong turnout from your precinct.
